

LIFE AT THE FURNACE

Copper producing settlement ecosystems in the north-western Troodos, Cyprus

Hybrid Krogager workshop, 28th January 2022

Programme (all hours are Central European Time)

9.30 Welcome and introductions

LAF 1.0 and LAF 2.0, Reports on the pilot season and discussion of strategies for the planned project

10.30 Human settlement, exploration and movement - Kristina Winther-Jacobsen (University of Copenhagen) and Angus Graham (Uppsala University)

11.30 Living and working near the furnace - Kristian Strutt (University of Southampton)

Break

12.15 Filling the gap (transitional archaeology) - Smadar Gabrieli (University of Sydney)

12.45 Provenance of raw material - Thilo Rehren (Cyprus Institute)

Break

LAF 2.0, strategies for the new project

14.15 Economic implications of the island's loss of independence - John Lund (National Museum)

15.00 Soli, a gateway community - Kristina Winther-Jacobsen (University of Copenhagen)

Break

16.00 Land use and land cover change - Evi Margaritis (Cyprus Institute) & Angus Graham (Uppsala University)

17.20 Wrap up comments

17.30 Workshop end